Jim/Beth;

I simply want to say thank you for the most incredible experience of my life. I simply do not understand the negativity. When I see and hear the negative comments being written and said about the HokaHey I am disappointed and unable to understand the nature of it. The cost of entry ($1,000) was a cheap entry fee to spend two weeks with others who were on the road with the same goal. I got exactly what I expected no more and no less. At the meeting before the race Jim said that it was not a race but a challenge and it will break you both physically and mentally...it will take you to places you have never been. I got more then I could have ever imagined from the challenge. It certainly took me beyond what I thought was possible and I am sorry for those who were unable to have the same experience that I did. For me it was never about the money only about the ride. God bless you and know there are those who love you for the gift you gave us.
