

Jeff Owings

Jim, Beth and the rest of the team.

When I met you in Daytona and signed up I knew it would be the ride you said it would be... and it was. Even though I finished with the others in injured reserve and didn't qualify, I am MORE than pleased with the experience of being in the ORIGINAL Hoka Hey. I told you I would make in at any cost, so I couldn't quit. Thank you for giving all those who showed up in Homer, the chance to be 'the point' on this worldwide event. To accept a challenge that only those who don't fear the unknown would take – and push to the end.

Your destination in life depends on the journey,
Your legacy is also determined by that journey.
Choose well. Every choice has its circumstances.
Destiny lies before us, all will ride out but not all will finish.
Ride hard, to finish is the prize.
Hoka Hey !!!
I salute you and everyone involved.
